

About the diploma

Persons who have completed their studies under the bachelor's/master's degree program are issued a diploma of their own sample on higher/postgraduate education with an appendix (transcript) for free.

The diploma is issued to a person who has successfully passed the final certification, on the basis of the decision of the IAC to assign a qualification to a graduate:

- undergraduate programs – diploma of higher education with the award of a bachelor's degree/qualification (bachelor's degree, bachelor's degree with honors, diploma supplement);
- for master's degree programs – a diploma of postgraduate education with the award of a master's degree / qualification; a certificate for a master's diploma, an appendix to a master's diploma.

What is a diploma qualification?

Diploma qualification is a name that reflects the level of readiness of a graduate of an educational organization to competently perform a certain type of activity in the received specialty. The name of the qualification depends on the level of professional training and the type of educational institution (higher or specialized secondary)

Qualification assignment is a procedure for confirming the totality of individual abilities, professional knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to perform work within the relevant type of professional activity;

The diploma qualification is coordinated with the specialty and assigned to the IAC after successfully defending the final qualifying work/diploma project and/or passing a comprehensive exam. Proper understanding of the essence of these concepts simplifies the procedure of filling out documents for further employment.
